Boy Scout Troop 948

An Eagle Scout Court of Honor was held by Boy Scout Troop 948 in honor of Patrick Brady, the first boy in the history of this troop to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout. The Eagle is the highest rank in scouting, and requires many years of dedicated work in scouting. Ed Brady, area commissioner, pinned the emblem on the boy. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Brady, parents of the new Eagle, were introduced and presented with a pin to commemorate the occasion.

INDUCTED INTO the troop were new scouts: Joseph Gariga, Richard Mansker, and Gary Maupin. Tenderfoot badges were received by Dale Griffin, Steven Jackson, Rickey Oxford, and Kenneth Teague.

Lance Schaus, Thomas Reis and Edward Cannady achieved the rank of First Class Scout and earned two merit badges. They are also assisting as Den Chiefs in a neighboring Cub Pack.

Patrick Reis received his First Class badge and a merit badge.

RICHARD BAIN, Lance Schaus, and Asst. Scoutmaster Vance Schaus received their red neckerchief for participating in fifteen overnight camp outs.

A special meeting was called for the presentation of the Merit of Honor Award which is rarely given to any scout. It was earned by Larry Till for having saved the life of his younger sister.

Educational movies were shown at both meetings.

Instructor at El Camino to Help Father Celebrate 100th Birthday

"I've heard the same thing a hundred times," the Rev. Thomas Silas Dulin might well quip in response to a chorus of "Happy Birthday."

The father of John Dulin, El Camino College instructor, will celebrate his one hundredth birthday June 6.

The college instructor will travel to Oregon to join a "tribe proportion" family reunion, to help the youthful centenarian reflect upon a century of activity.

EARLY DAYS found him a circuit rider (bicycle borne) in Eastern Oregon. He also served as an instructor of Hebrew at the Western Baptist Seminary in Portland. His final pastorate was in Camas, Wash. He and his wife once traveled on a "bicycle built for two" in carrying out their parish duties.

Hailing from the wheat-belt state of Iowa, he began holding evangelistic meetings while earning my way through William Jewell College.

BORN THE year the blue and gray initiated the war between the states, the Rev. Dulin remembers clearly how his father returned from the battle grounds of the most famous war in American history.

With his heart in the busy present, the retired minister keeps his mind active by reading in both Hebrew and Greek from time to time.

In a poem of his own hand, the elderly minister noted, "I am watching day by day, that the bloom of youth on my heart may stay."

HE ORGANIZED two churches, and came into the Northern Baptist fellowship in Colorado in 1890. In 1892 he and his bride, a graduate of Stephens College, Mo., followed their missionary work into Oregon, where he continued his work as a theologian for many years.

In addition to his son, John, the elder Dulin has a grand daughter at El Camino College. Mrs. Nancy Smith Budrow is a typist clerk, while her husband, Norman Budrow, is a full-time student at El Camino with a business administration major.

THE REV. DULIN has been asked to conduct the services for Baptist churches in West Linn and Portland in celebration of the five-score birthday record.

Other groups of friends have joined the list of well-wishers with parties and festivities for their "young" Rev. Dulin.

The Rev. Dulin was cited as the oldest living minister of the American Baptist Convention in 1957 and is the oldest living graduate of William Jewell College.

Plan First, Author Says To Hopefuls

Maren Elwood, author of three acclaimed texts on creative writing, UCLA teacher, author's coach, and agent, was guest speaker at a recent meeting of Southwest Manuscripters in Hermosa Beach.

Choosing as her subject, "The Writer at Work," Miss Elwood stressed the importance of the planning phase in writing a story.

"All the arts are one," she said, "and in any art the person who practices successfully, plans before he executes."

"MANY THINGS," she said, "may spark the idea for a story. You get a character, you see a setting, you feel a mood. But this is only the beginning. Then comes the planning. You should sketch, take notes, build with small patient touches. You must play with ideas, eat them, sleep them, live them, give them dimension. And at last, with the help of the subconscious mind, bring order into the imagination. The plot is the order, and without order you have chaos."
